

Verbiér, 8 April 2021

Dear Copperfield parents & students,

OUR HEADTEACHER AND SEVENOAKS SCHOOL

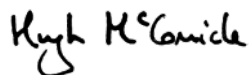

We hope you are enjoying a wonderful break. We are delighted to announce that Dr Hugh McCormick has been appointed as Head of International Engagement at Sevenoaks School, one of the world's foremost schools. This appointment will not affect Hugh's duties for Copperfield Verbiér.

Mr Jesse Elzinga, Headteacher of Sevenoaks, commented: "I have appointed Dr Hugh McCormick as Head of International Engagement at Sevenoaks School from May 2021. Many colleagues will remember Hugh as a committed Head of Economics, and after he left last year he became founding headteacher of an international school in Switzerland. In this new role back at Sevenoaks, he will build on his knowledge of international schools and – working remotely – report directly to the Headmaster on different models of international engagement from across the sector."

Mr John Porter, Chairman of Copperfield Verbiér, commented: "We're delighted to see Hugh recognised as a leader as the top British schools look to build their global infrastructure."

We both look forward to seeing you on campus and around Verbiér in the near future.

Yours faithfully,

Hugh McCormick
